We're back for a 60 minute livestream today, April 1st. The fifth round of food and beverage brands includes Poppilu, Vital Farms, Genius Juice and Cocoa Metro. Watch their founders and CEOs jump into the livestream and provide a brief recap of recent news and updates. We also have a special co-host this week, Dr. Sebastian Dreher, the Managing Director of Döhler Ventures, who will be weighing in on the brands from an investor's perspective and provide feedback. He will be joined by Ray Latif, the Editor and Producer of the Taste Radio Podcast.

Retailers, investors, distributors, suppliers, service providers and fellow brands can tune into the live feed from 5:00 PM to 6:00 PM ET on the BevNET and NOSH as well as on the BevNET LinkedIn and NOSH LinkedIn pages. For those that are busy and can't make the live show, the full recording will be hosted on this page.

With more people to see and more news to share, we're hosting two more Elevator Talk livestreams next week on Tuesday March 17th and Thursday March 19th. Founders and CEOs of food or beverage brands of all sizes are invited to join our team via live video to talk about their news for a few minutes. It is free to participate and interviews will be conducted remotely. Apply for a future Elevator Talk Livestream.
