When it comes to holiday gifting, there's one thing we can all agree on — there's nothing better than the gift that keeps on giving!

And there's one gift category that literally does just that: food subscription boxes.

For whatever length of time you choose, the recipient of your food subscription box will receive the best something (i.e. something edible!) in their mailbox. They'll continually get surprised with something delicious, and you, in turn, will quite possibly become their new favorite person.

Plus, if you're in a crunch and doing last-minute holiday shopping, you can order one of these food subscription boxes at a moment's notice. fist bump

But! With so many food subscriptions out there, how do you even begin to choose the perfect one for your giftee or picky eaters? After all everyone has unique taste buds, not to mention dietary needs.

Luckily, there seem to be monthly food subscription boxes for just about everyone, from wine lovers to burger enthusiasts, to macaron connoisseurs and gluten-free snackers. We have options for those who like sweet treats to those who prefer a healthy meal with organic ingredients. We truly think we've found a box for everyone on your list!
