November 20, 2020

It's pretty clear that this year's holiday season won't look like any others. Instead of malls and holiday markets, most of our shopping has moved online, And while everything may remain different, there's still excitement and joy to be found in finding the perfect gifts for all your loved ones.

Gift planning is a great way to get into the holiday spirit. But you've got a lot on your plate, so I've curated a list of the best home and kitchen gifts you can get for those you hold dear. From the best kitchen appliances to ellipticals and travel-worthy gifts, you'll find the things you need for even the most discerning of those on your holiday list.

Gifts for the Home

Big Fig Mattress | $1,700

Image:

I got a Big Fig mattress two years ago, and I've been a fan ever since. This mattress is made for larger-bodied people like me, and the company says it's designed to last up to 20 years. It's a gift that any larger person in your life will be thanking you for decades. The mattress is firm, which is a godsend for people with back problems, and it has edge support, so you don't fall off the bed by mistake in the middle of the night. It is designed to not sag under your weight and keep the sleeper cool all night long.

Big Fig mattress is a cult favorite amongst plus-size influencers and models, often appearing on Instagram and Facebook. By offering monthly financing, Big Fig is also made accessible for a range of budgets, allow you to decide to gift it, and who are we kidding, buy this for yourself. You won't regret it.

NordicTrack Elliptical | $3,000

Image:

I spent 7 years working in the automotive industry and on my feet for 50 hours a week easily. Now, working from home during the pandemic, I'm dreading the cold and losing an outlet to exercise.

Top 5 Of The Most Instagrammed Destinations

If you have a loved one in a similar position, getting them a NordicTrack elliptical just makes perfect sense. It's a 3-in-1 workout machine, acting like an elliptical, a stepper, and a treadmill depending on the settings.

NordicTrack works with iFit, a personal training system that integrates with the elliptical and allows the trainers to adjust things like incline in the middle of a workout. Live. iFit memberships can be shared by up to four adults, so you can each keep track of your own movement goals, needs, and preferences. That makes it the ideal household gift for your pandemic pod to stay active and enjoy a good sweat, without ever leaving the house.

AVerMedia Live Streamer CAM | $80

A thoughtful gift to anyone working from home, the AVerMedia Live streamer cam is both a webcam and a microphone in one convenient unit. It swivels and has a wide-angle, making it easier to Skype with family when you need to fit more than one person in the camera.

Reviewers are satisfied with the starter product, from teachers to streamers, home businesses to Zumba instructor, making it a gift for anyone on your list. “I use for my Zumba classes that I teach on Zoom. I bought on the recommendation of another Zumba instructor,” Diadina Veras. “It was easy to connect and use, just plug and play. My students said the picture quality was a lot clearer and sharper than my MacBook camera.”
