A 50th birthday, 50 new places: That was Allison Andrews' plan for the year.

Her roster included a dog-sledding adventure in Jackson Hole, Wyo., in March, a trip to Spain in April and May and a Bahamas cruise with a former college roommate in June.

She got as far as Switzerland, in mid March, before boomeranging home to Mooresville, N.C.

"I couldn't 'Eat, Pray, Love' this — I have a kid, I have a job and I had already planned out a lot in order to get good deals," said Ms. Andrews, the founder of Allison Andrews Creative, a video production and content creation business. "I just spent weeks just canceling stuff."
