To put it in running terms, shopping the Brooks Running's Black Friday sale is a marathon, not a sprint. Some promotions are currently underway, others extend beyond December, and there's at least one flash sale that you could miss if you aren't paying attention. So much high-quality running gear—shoes, apparel, outerwear, and accessories—is available at killer prices, but it's easy to get overwhelmed by the sheer volume of choice if you don't have a plan. So, let's take this one step at a time.

- If you're on the hunt for running shoes, start with the Brooks Hyperion collection, some of which are discounted by up to 41% through December 31, 2024. Also, take a look at the Adrenaline GTS 23, which is on sale for 29% off through February 28, 2025.
- Shopping for sports bras and other apparel? Popular styles, including the 3 Pocket Sports Bra, are currently on sale for 25% off, but that promotion ends at midnight on December 3, 2024.
- If you're a Brooks Run Club member and plan to spend at least $150, do it by December 4, 2024. You'll receive a free roll-top shoe bag for storing gnarly sneakers and sweaty gym clothes (a $25 value).
- Lastly, don't miss Brooks' Cyber Monday flash sale. You can get an additional 10% off your purchase by entering the code CYBR24 at checkout.
- If Brooks happens to be out of your size, or what you're looking for isn't on sale, check out Fleet Feet, Road Runner Sports, Sun & Ski, Zappos, and Nordstrom. They're all running Black Friday and Cyber Monday sales that include Brooks items.

Now, if you need some help fleshing out your shopping list and filling up your cart, we've pulled together a list of our favorite products for running enthusiasts (and their gift-giving friends and family).

3 Pocket Sports Bra — $43.25

Originally $55

Brooks' best-selling 3 Pocket Sports Bra, available in multiple band sizes, cup sizes, colors, and patterns, is now 25% off. As its name suggests, this compressive bra includes two small mesh side pockets for small items, like keys or an ID card, and a larger, no-bounce back pocket to keep your phone secure and easily accessible. The higher neckline and removable cups offer more coverage—a bonus for runners who prefer to work out sans shirt. We especially love the aqua/Moroccan blue colorway with lemon yellow accents.

Adrenaline GTS 23 — $97.95

Originally $140

Available in multiple widths for men and women, the Adrenaline GTS 23 is the Goldilocks of running shoes. The cushioning is soft but not squishy. Patented GuideRails technology reduces excess movement, but you won't feel restricted or too far from the ground. Runners and walkers have been logging miles in the Adrenaline for over 20 years, making it a popular choice among experienced athletes and those just beginning their fitness journey. It's tough to find solid sneakers for under $100, so stock up now.

Convertible 2.0 Sports Bra — $45.00

Originally $60

Never get trapped in a sweaty sports bra again with Brooks' Convertible 2.0. This updated version of the classic Convertible easily goes on and comes off with straps that hook in the back. Soft cups are sewn into the front, which means no annoying bunching or losing a pad in the wash. The wide, padded shoulder straps minimize digging and can be hooked together in a scoopback or racerback style for a customized fit. It's your new favorite sports bra, and it's 25% off!

Run Visible Jacket 2.0 — $135.00

Originally $180

Will you enjoy your next pre-dawn run in the wind and rain? Maybe not. But if you're wearing the Run Visible Jacket 2.0, you'll at least stay warm, dry, and visible on the road. This semi-fitted, zip-up jacket provides a wind-resistant, water-repellant outer layer that's breathable and moves with your body as you run. Motorists, cyclists, and other runners can easily see the jacket's high-contrast color-blocking and strategically placed reflective strips, even in the dark. Other smart details include zip-up pockets and a stowable hood you can roll up or unfurl mid-run. This outdoor running essential is currently 25% off.

Spark Tight — $73.50

Originally $98

Brooks' Spark Tight was made to hold up (and stay up) on long, grueling runs. A wide waistband, internal cord, and compressive fit minimize rolling and sagging, and the inner thighs feature a special anti-chafing panel. Yet, they're not too restrictive for cross-training, active recovery, or less-than-active recovery (aka lounging all day). If you only wear leggings with pockets, the Spark Tight checks that box, too, with a turn-and-lock back pocket and two side drop-in pockets. All regularly-priced colors and designs are now 25% off.

Shield Lobster Glove 2.0 — $41.25

Originally $55

Brooks' design for this glove/mitten/crustacean hybrid is as genius as it is weird. Separate compartments for your index finger and thumb allow for more mobility than a mitten while the rest of your hand and fingers stay toasty and encased in THERMOLITE insulation. The quilted outer layer is windproof and water-repellent, making the Shield Lobster Glove the perfect stocking stuffer for an all-weather runner. Both black and storm blue colorways are currently 25% off.

Notch Thermal Long Sleeve 2.0 — $67.50

Originally $90

The Notch Thermal Long Sleeve 2.0 will quickly become your go-to running shirt. It's lightweight and breathable enough for layering, but it also looks and feels great on its own. It's constructed with sweat-wicking, antimicrobial material to help ward off funk, and features like zippered pockets, thumbholes, and a watch window boost functionality and overall comfort. Regularly priced, it's a worthwhile investment; at 25% off, it's a steal.

Ghost Crew Socks — $13.50

Originally $18

In general, socks get a bum rap when it comes to gift-giving, but you will never disappoint a runner with a high-quality pair. Brooks' Ghost Crew Socks are made with arch support, a cushioned heel and forefoot, and odor-resistant materials. Plus, they're cute and on sale for $25% off.
